Foreword

Today, man is faced with many problems. He is able to cope with some of these problems and is able to solve some of them satisfactorily. Only when he is able to do this is he accepted as a member of society.

We are graduating seniors. Some of us feel that our hardest problems have been faced. The majority of us realize, however, that our problems are only beginning, that we are only now going out into the world. We realize that we will face hardships and experiences that will make these past experiences seem minute.

For this reason, we, the Editorial Staff, have worked tirelessly and painstakingly on this yearbook. When, in coming years, our problems become more than we can bear, when our hardships seem to have the best of us, we can turn back the pages of time to the days of our youth by opening and enjoying this, THE RAM, 1961-62.

As We

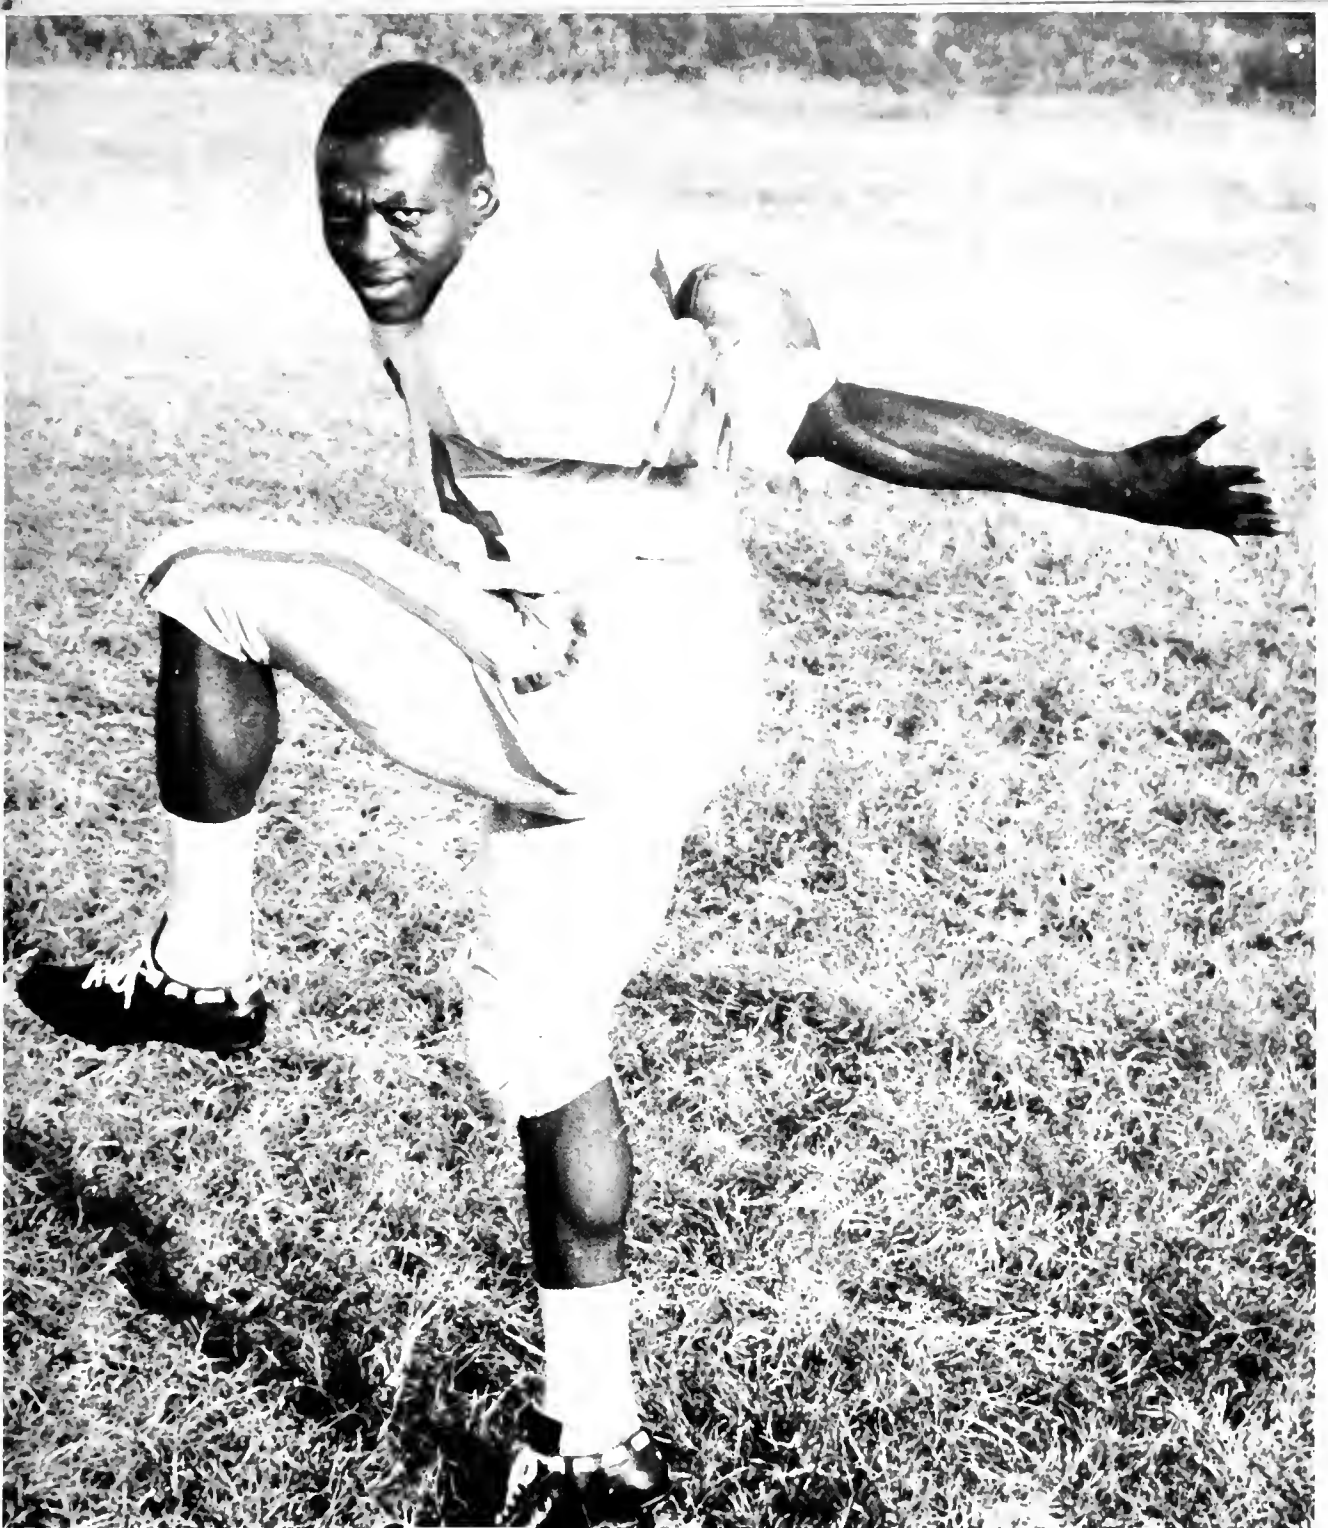

Go Forth

Dedication

Because of her advisory leadership and devotion, because of her profound interest in our behalf to help solve the problems that have confronted us, during our four years at Teachers College, we the Senior Class of 1962 dedicate this edition of THE RAM to our most beloved advisor, MRS. GLORIA GOORE.

Special Recognition

The Senior Class takes great pride and pleasure in bestowing special recognition upon Nelson Guthrie. Guthrie has made many contributions to Teachers College in the sports world.

Guthrie is twenty-one years old and hails from Gastonia, North Carolina. Since being at Teachers College, he has achieved the following honors:

1. All-American in football
2. All C.I.A.A. halfback
3. C.I.A.A. rushing champion
4. A member of the golf team

With all sincerity, we, the Senior Class, wish you, Nelson, much success in your future endeavors.

President and

First Lady

To The Class Of 1962:

Congratulations and best wishes as you change from the status of students of The Winston-Salem Teachers College to members of the Alumni Association. You can imagine my special interest in the members of this class and the extent to which I shall attempt to follow your activities in the years ahead.

What a glorious time this is to be able to start your careers! Old concepts are changing, presenting you with new challenges and opportunities. New fields of employment are opening. More and more people who have jobs to be done are expressing an interest only in your ability to do the job. These trends will continue and they present your generation a chance to prove that it is the most capable generation privileged to contribute to American culture rather than the most tragic.

Completing four years of college work has been a difficult task for many of you. Yet, you have persevered. At the same time you have shown an excellent spirit of cooperation by giving your best at the College. I am proud to have attempted to give its best to you.

The entire College Family congratulates you! All of us trust that you will devote the rest of your life to the important task of contributing to the development of the brilliant new age before us.

Sincerely,

James R. Williams

"Enter to Learn - Go Forth to Serve"

"Enter to Learn. . . . ."

In keeping with its aims and purposes, the college has endeavored to assist you in becoming the most capable student and the most serviceable citizen.

We have endeavored to foster such attributes as: scholarly attainments, ability to earn an honest living, faith in fellowman, and trust in God.

It is our sincere hope that it was not your aim to make a nodding acquaintance with the humanities, the arts, the sciences, languages, but that you have seriously and conscientiously applied yourself, drank deeply of the springs and have developed your potentialities and powers to the fullest. NOW. . . . .

"Go Forth to Serve"

You are entering the world at a time which will make strenuous demands of you. You will be called upon to do your part in:

1. helping to restore peace in a world disorganized by all kinds of fears, prejudices and hatreds;
2. helping to develop correct understandings of the problems of minority groups; to improve the lot of the Negro and to modify the national image of him, and improve the national sentiment toward him;
3. helping to restore moral and spiritual integrity;
4. helping to educate the peoples of the world;

THINK - (straight)
WORK - (hard)
SERVE - (well)

CROSSING THE BAR

Sunset and evening star,
And one clear call for me!
And may there be no moaning of the bar,
When I put out to sea.

For tho' from out our bourne of Time and Place
The flood may bear me far,
I hope to see my Pilot face to face
When I have crossed the bar.

Class History

The title of our play is the "History of the Class of 1962 at Winston-Salem Teachers College." The play has four acts. The cast is the Class of 1962.

Act I

It was September, 1958, when the curtain opened at Winston-Salem Teachers College, disclosing on the stage a large number of freshmen who had come from many areas of the country. Each came with great expectations. Some chose nursing as their major field; others chose elementary education; and still others music.

During the Freshman Orientation Week, we became acquainted with our roommates, classmates, and schoolmates. This was a very crucial week for many who were away from home for the first time. We took the entrance examinations and during this week visited the business district of downtown Winston-Salem. Some won very valuable prizes from the Merchants' Association.

It was the custom for the freshman class to give a talent show. During the show, the upperclassmen discovered that our class was not merely "fresh" but talented.

Mrs. Goore was appointed as our class advisor. She proved to be a very efficient directress and through her leadership we were able to keep the show going. Willie Davis, our class president, had the leading role in the play. Other class officers chosen were as follows: Clarence Chambers, Vice President; Peggy Freeman, Secretary; and Flecia Wynecoff, Treasurer.

Throughout our freshman year, we had to study hard but we also participated in the extra-curricular activities, such as the band, choir, athletics, drama club, charm club, and pledge clubs.

Marie Jacobs, a very attractive young lady, was chosen to represent our class as an attendant in Miss T. C.'s court.

In athletics, there were many members of the class who were on the basketball, football, and track teams. On the basketball team were George Foree, James Johnson, and Donald Faison. Nelson Guthrie, Ivory Roberts, Jerome Jewell, Emmanuel Witherspoon, and Rodger Adams were on the football team. On the track team were Frank Bowens, Russell Rogers, Edward Johnston, Edward Riley, Robert Manning, and Robert Jackson.

Our class also participated in the drama tournament. Representing our class were Markethia Baldwin, Beverly Berry, Edward Riley, and Elmer Britt.

Our freshman year was a successful and enjoyable one for many of us; however, a sad shadow was cast over our lives when one of our classmates, Elmer Britt, experienced a fatal tragedy.

In May, 1959, the curtain closed on our freshman year.

Act II

The curtain opened on Act Two. It was September, 1959. Once again we were on the campus at Winston-Salem Teachers College as sophomores. Many who were with us during our freshman year did not return and some who were not with us our freshman year joined our class. We were here once again to continue our climb to the top of our educational ladder.

We elected the following class officers: Willie Davis, President; Mary Flowers, Vice President; Diana Davis, Secretary; and Donree Foster, Treasurer. Beverly Berry represented our class as a member of the Student Council.

We welcomed the incoming freshmen, and feeling a little superior to them, tried to show them the "ropes."

Those who were in the band put on their band suits once again. The members of the choir sang new songs, and the boys on the football team and the basketball team put on their suits once again to win many victories.

We chose as our representative to Miss T. C.'s court the lovely Lorraine Lesane. Homecoming was a memorable event for us because it gave us a chance to dance to the music of Lionel Hampton.

Those who had pledged to the sororities and fraternities began making preparations to cross those "burning sands." Lillian Kiser was inducted into Alpha Phi Sigma Honor Society.

The nurses felt very proud when they received their caps at the annual capping exercise. This was their first big step toward graduation.

Our second year in college passed rather swiftly and once again we were at the end of another school year.

Act III

At the beginning of Act Three, we found ourselves on stage starting a new year in our career. We faced the year with new promises to ourselves. As juniors we had taken on a new responsibility. We would be responsible for choosing a candidate to run for Miss T. C. and we assumed many other tasks. Nevertheless we felt that we would conquer in everything we set out to do.

We elected the following class officers: Willie Davis, President; Janice Inabinett, Secretary; and Donree Foster, Treasurer. Mary Flowers and Beverly Berry were our Student Council representatives.

Our first big task as juniors was to elect a candidate to run for Miss Teachers College. We chose the very beautiful Mary Wilkins who was a nursing student from Salisbury, North Carolina. Mary Wilkins won the honor, and ruled graciously over the school as Miss T. C.

During the fall quarter, we were faced with taking the much dreaded Junior Qualification Tests. We knew that these tests would determine our status as college students. This time also brought the nursing students to a goal of which they had dreamed—affiliation. Their assignments took them to many cities on the eastern coast of the United States.

The football team made a good showing with such players as Nelson Guthrie, Robert Jackson, Ivory Roberts, and many others.

Homecoming events gave us a chance to renew our acquaintances with many friends. The football team was victorious at the homecoming game, and at the victory dance we danced to the music of Earl Bostic.

Winter brought changes to the campus. The members of the football team hung up their suits, and the boys on the basketball team put on their suits. This was a victorious year for the team. They became C.I.A.A. champions, and George Foree made the trip with the team to Kansas City as a starting player.

When the spring quarter came, we were all filled with spring fever. We started making plans for the Junior-Senior Dance. The Crystal Ballroom was the scene of the biggest event of the quarter.

Thus, the curtains closed on another successful year in our college life. We left school looking forward to the next year when we would return as seniors.

Act IV

The curtains opened for the final act. Many changes had taken place on the campus of Winston-Salem Teachers College. We were no longer on the quarter system but on the semester system. We returned to the campus to play our last roles as students. We were now seniors.

We started the year by electing our class officers. Lewis Roland was chosen as President; James Young, Vice President; Janice Inabinett, Secretary; and Floyd Plymouth, Treasurer. Clarence Chambers and Beverly Berry were elected to serve our class as Student Council representatives. Mrs. Goore, who had been with us three long years, was still our class advisor.

Our senior year meant that we had many tasks to perform. It was time for us to do our student teaching and it was a thrilling experience to find out that we could actually teach.

The student nurses returned from their successful affiliations. The workers on the 1962 RAM began to work hard to put out a successful yearbook.

Our last Homecoming as students arrived. We were proud to run Ann Gilmore as our candidate for Miss T. C. Janie Aldridge won the title of Miss Ram. We had many students in our class to make "Who's Who Among Students in Universities and Colleges." They were William Hunt, Effie Bullock, Willie Davis, Lilliam Kiser, Donree Foster, Sara Hunt, and Joseph Daniels. Juanita Carter won the Miss S. N. E. A. title.

As seniors we were allowed to attend the Alumni Ball. We danced to the music of Lloyd Price and his orchestra.

There were several members of the class who had played with the college band since they were freshmen. They were: Diana Davis, Markethia Baldwin, Garfield Robinson, Foster Lassiter, Joyce Johnson, and Marvin Setzer. They were stepping proudly in their new uniforms at the Homecoming parade and game.

As the curtain nears its closing on the final act, there is excitement in the air. We are approaching that moment in our play for which we have striven since we were freshmen—graduation. The play has not yet ended. But you, dear readers, will be present, perhaps, when the final curtain falls and can write the finale for yourselves.

Prophecy

As I gaze into my crystal ball, I see the class of "62" as the new inhabitants of the moon. I had become curious as to what the lunatics of "62" were doing since they had become "moon-struck" and so I decided to find out. I knew about myself because, along with EDWINA CAMPBELL, I was working hard trying to pay for those phone calls that kept us in touch with those two T's on earth. I knew she was curious and so I asked her to join me.

As we hail a cab, we find that we are to occupy one with the newlyweds, VIRGINIA OLDS and DEXTER STEPHENS, who have just returned from their honeymoon on Earth. We find that BILLY C. ADAMS owns the Interplanetary Cab Company. As we ride down First Quarter Street, we passed the Sattelite Theater where the main feature today is Bones, Bones, Bones starring ANN GILMORE, CARRIE PHIFER and BETTY WILBERT, directed by JAMES PARKER, and produced by tycoon JEROME "Big Dollar" PATSWALDO JEWELL.

We stop by the Crest for lunch and find that it is owned and operated by JOHN WILSON and McKINELY SMITH and the head wiater is none other than EMANUEL WITHERSPOON. Some of the fabulous waitresses are ALMETA DAWSON, NAOMI COZART, IRENE EDWARDS, SARAH HUNT, and MILDRED NIXON. Running the dishwasher in the back is none other than ROGER "Fat Daddy" ADAMS.

After an enjoyable lunch we venture down Eclipse Boulevard where we find a magnificent array of shops, such as the fabulous Moon Shoe Shop, selling shoes designed by Miss FLORENCE GORHAM. Next door to Moon Shoes, we find a lingerie shop owned and operated by GLORIA GWYN, CLARA McDOWELL, GLENDA TEAGUE, and JOAN ARMSTRONG. They specialize in Moon Mist Lingerie.

Oh, oh, oh! We run into a little trouble. The taxi breaks down. We call for a tow truck and guess what? ROSCOE MICKLE is the driver. As we approach the garage, we see CLENZO JONES washing space cars. While waiting for our taxi, we pick up the local newspaper which is edited by EDWARD JOHNSON. One of his staff members is gossip columnist, BARBARA DILLARD. PATRICIA BULLOCK is doing a "Dear Pat" column and the sports writer is none other than TOMMY CRANK.

We find that NELSON GUTHRIE has been sued for bigamy by MARY L. SMITH and the judge presiding is none other than WILLIE A. COHEN. As we turn to the sports page, we find that ROBERT JACKSON has broken all records. He has pole-valted 20 1/2 feet. FRANK BOWENS is now head track coach at Moon University and CHARLES CARTER is an English instructor there. GEORGE FOREE is head basketball coach and his team has just won the M.I.A.A. tournament (Moon Interplanetary Astronaut Association).

In the latest political news, President FLOYD PLYMOUTH has just chosen a new cabinet: CLARENCE CHAMBERS, LEWIS ROLAND, BEVERLY BERRY, IMOGENE SNUGGS, CALVIN STEPHENS, and AUDREY HAYNES.

Our taxi is ready and so we are going to Comet City Hotel to check in. When we reach there, we find that the proprietors of fabulous Comet City are DONALD FAISON and SAMUEL JOHNSON. We find some illustrious guests there. They are MARY PETTIFORD, GLORIA McALLISTER, SHIRLEY ZOLLICOFFER, ZENOBIA HINES and PAULINE DAWSON. We dress and go to the fabulous night club, the Big Dipper, operated by BILLY SUDDERTH and ADOLPHUS HUNTER. The bartender is JOSEPH DANIELS accompanied by two barmaids, SHELVA SMITH and GLORIA REYNOLDS. The club features the Sattelite Shakers starring CHRISTINE DANCY and all the little Shakers. They include ETHEL MOORE, RUBY POWELL, JANICE INABINETT, MARY ISLER, ANNETTE HAIRSTON, LILLIAN KISER and PEGGY FREEMAN.

At the piano we find FLORA COOPER. Guest stars for the evening are CARL BENNIX and EDNA GALES and directing the orchestra is WILLIE PRIDE. The orchestra consists of DIANA DAVIS, JOYCE JOHNSON, FOSTER LASSITER, TYRONE SCALES, SHELDIA HARDY, JACQUELINE HAMRICK, MARKETHIA BALDWIN, MARVIN SETZER, and JAMES GOOLSBY. Looking around the night club, we see many famous celebrities, such as: CLIFTON BOWIE, CARRIE CLARK, LAURA BARBER, CAPITOLA BEATTY, CAROLYN GOSS, MARGO ANDREWS, and JANIE ALDRIDGE. Miss EDDIS REINHARDT is the greatest with her impersonations.

We are invited to a party at 444 Milkway Drive at the home of Mr. and Mrs. JAMES C. YOUNG. Mrs. Young is the former debutante Miss DONREE FOSTER. While at the party we find that IVORY ROBERTS and MILO STEWART are owners of the Ro-Mo Clothing Company. During the party, JUANITA CARTER and WILLIE RICHARDSON announce their engagement. Miss Carter is offered a gown by the designers WILLACENA MccOY, GLORIA FULLER, and LORRAINE LESANE.

We return to the hotel for a good night's sleep. The next day we are invited to tour the new hospital which has just opened and find that head nurse is Miss GLORIA YOUNGUE. We also find that DELORES THOMPSON became so interested in cardiovascular diseases that she is the heart surgeon for the hospital. Some of the nurses on the staff are DOROTHY KNIGHT, HELEN DOBY, VIRGINIA FONVILLE, HELEN SMITH, GLORIA ROGERS, VALLIE PARKER, and DONNA WILLIAMS.

After we leave the hospital, we cross University spaceway and enter the suburbs, Moon Valley. On the left resides DORIS HICKS. She is now Mrs. Lutheran Wiley and is busy bringing up the little L. T.'s.

CLARICE GLENN, MARGIE STRICKLAND, FELICIA WYNECOFF, MARVA STEVENS, and ELVA SMITH are nurses in the new Moon Valley homes.

The beauty salon in the community is owned by LUCRETIA BROWN and operated by QUEENIE WIGGINS, SARAH MILES, RUTH PETTIFORD and featuring the fabulous hair stylists QUINTON THOMAS and LEMUEL MONTGOMERY.

Meanwhile back in a crater COZY HARDY, BETTY ELLER, JENNIE ROGERS, and VELMA HAMLET are attending FRANKLYN HOOPER's "Frank-Tanny's Reducing Class" to keep those fine shapes.

BOBBIE COLLINS, ARNETTA MARCUS, SHIRLEY PULLEN, FRANCIS COCKERHAM and LORETTA COUSSINS have secured teaching jobs in the Space Cadet School.

MARY FORNEY is now working on a new water-proof diaper and guess who is helping her: CYNTHIA GARDNER and POLLY JOYCE.

JACQUELINE WALLACE has opened up a dance studio. Some of the instructors are ALYCE BARBER, ZEOLA BALDWIN, MARY FLOWERS and MARIE JACOBS.

GWYN JONES, ELLA LITTLE, and CORRINE MINTZ have opened a shop for tall girls.

ROSAMOND HAIRSTON is now a beauty consultant on the skin.

DOROTHY HUNTER, NORMA STRABERRY, SELMA SMITH and CATHERINE GRAHAM are now big-time bakers. They are putting holes in doughnuts. WILLIE DAVIS and DORSEY KEITH still aren't satisfied. They are now aiming for greater heights transferring their residences and families to Pluto.

SHIRLEY WARREN has become so interested in personality that she is now teaching a course on the moon called "Personality on the Moon." Mrs. SYRILDA SMITH is the matron of the new girls dormitory at Moon University.

Ever since we joined the class of "62", we thought we would go places and reach great heights. We think we did great. What do you think?

Class Poem

We grave and earnest Seniors, bidding farewell
As we leave Winston-Salem Teachers College,
Would like to acknowledge our gratitude to you
For aiding us in the acquisition of knowledge.
Valuing your counseling as leaders,
Prizing the memories we've shared,
We'll forever hold your name aloft,
Alma Mater, with Thee, none could be compared.

We've striven diligently to reach this goal
with encouragement, disappointments and zeal.
You've helped us travel this long, rugged road,
So you can understand how proud we feel.
We've rejoiced and sighed together
And applied the golden rule in life's game of ball,
Expressing our interest through trials and errors,
Avowing together, we would rise or fall.

Continuing to aspire for success,
We'll meet Fate with a smile,
And strive with a dauntless spirit,
Remembering Thee all the while.
Now from old T.C. we must depart—
That which each class must do,
Praying that you'll hold dear to your heart,
The Class of Nineteen Hundred, Sixty-Two.

Class Song

Dear Ole Teachers College
Tune "Over the Rainbow"

- I. Dear Ole Teachers College
We love you,
We will never forget you
No matter what we do.

- II. You have always helped us
Made our future bright,
In our hearts you will stay dear
Beautiful Red and White.

- III. On this campus we have trod
But now its time for us to part, and leave you
We'll always keep you in our hearts
And hold you, Alma Mater, high
So please believe us.

- IV. Somewhere over the rainbow
We must go
Please believe that we love you
So much you'll never know.

The hour of departing has arrived. We the members of the yearbook staff and the members of the senior class have taken great care in preparing this 1962 edition of THE RAM. Throughout the pages of this book, we have shown the exquisite beauty that exist on our campus. THE '62 RAM terminates our four years of endeavor at Teachers College.

At this time, we would like to pay tribute to our class advisor, Mrs. Gloria Goore, who has worked closely, patiently, and indicatively to make our class one long to be remembered at Teachers College. We would like to thank all our class instructors for the part they have played in helping to make us better citizens.

Today, we are in a new era, the era of astronauts, and we are ready to be launched into the field of educating and cultivating the minds of the citizens of tomorrow, and to my beloved classmates, may God bless each one of you. I pray that each will strive continuously to reach, the highest and finest goals in life.

These Teachers Are Tired, Hungry

By Luis Overbea

Homecoming season for the Teachers College is a climax as the Rams will play their last game.

The Teachers must win to maintain their best hopes for a Central Intercollegiate Athletic Association title. For Nelson Guthrie, the Rams' quarterback, this will be a day of reckoning. He has a chance to break the all-time rushing record of 2,111 yards in 102 carries set by Johnson C. Williams of the CIAA by gaining only 277 yards against Johnson C. Williams in 1952.

The Winston-Salem Teachers made by the Teachers are a tired, hungry - polished group of football players. That is the reason they could manage to also was every

Rams Seeks Guthrie Record

Fayetteville Plays Host To WSTC

By Luis Overbea

The Winston-Salem Teachers College Rams are back in the Central Intercollegiate Athletic Association. Nelson Guthrie may be in the CIAA records in rushing and in total offense. Today, Guthrie could set a new record when the Rams play Fayetteville. The Rams will be favored to win, but Fayetteville has its best record in several seasons. Fayetteville is 3-0 in the CIAA. The Rams are 10-0.

Guthrie has run for 200 yards in 35 carries. If he gains 277 yards he will set a CIAA record. He needs 82 yards to break the all-time total offense mark.

An exchange of punts followed. The Teachers then moved from their own 34 to an apparent first down on the Bluefield one when a holding penalty pushed them back. They then failed to recover. A Bluefield drive was contained when Guthrie intercepted a pass by William Smith on the Teachers' 12 yards out. Smith was tackled by the Teachers' defense.
